

John 'Jay Dubya' Smith Workshop

Enjoying Acrylics

The workshop is on Saturday 14th October at Smisby Village Hall, from 12.30 until 5 pm. The cost is £30. £25 if paid on joining night.

Painting in a contemporary style we will be creating a dramatic 'Castle at Dusk' and a striking fun to paint still life 'Flowers and Fruit' This will be an enjoyable day and I will take you step by step through the process of painting these two totally different pictures... you will amaze yourselves!

REQUIREMENTS: Acrylic paints (at least a basic starter set) a selection of Brushes and a couple of canvases or Acrylic paper. I recommend an easel or table easel. Those who have attended my workshops before will know that Music to set the mood is an important part of the day... So come along prepared to enjoy yourselves. If this is your first time with Acrylic don't worry, I will be on hand to help and encourage. Acrylics can be messy so bring along an old shirt etc! Come along and get creative.
